Surprised Many Hearers.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 20.—A bitter arraignment of Charles F. Pfister at the hands of Attorney James G. Flanders characterized the forenoon session of the Pfister Free Press libel suit on trial before a jury in Judge Hastings' court. The speaker referred to Mr. Pfister as the grand blama of a certain article. He pictured him as being struck with awe and amazement at the publicity of the Free Press in trying to defend the $250,000 libel suit. He referred to Mr. Pfister as "The high muck-muck of his circle." He declared that at the age of thirty-six Mr. Pfister had acquired the reputation of a villain.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS AT CIVIC MEETING

Influential Men of the Country Meet at New York Where Civic Forum Gathers.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, Nov. 20.—Several hundred influential men, publicists and religious leaders of every faith will attend the opening meeting of the organization which, under the name of the Civic Forum, promises to attract the attention of the civilized world. The organization is designed to exert a national and an international influence for higher standards of civic service, and to promote international good will through addresses by eminent Americans and representatives of foreign nations.

The Civic Forum will offer the American right of free speech to subjects of the most autocratic governments. At its periodical meetings to be held in Carnegie Hall orators from all the world will be given an opportunity to speak their minds on any political or social problem. Chances, creed and party lines will be ignored. Labor men, capitalists, clerics, presidents, merchants, politicians and students are equally welcome to join the movement and attend the meetings.

Among the American speakers, in addition to Governor Hughes, will be William J. Bryan, Secretary of War, Taft, Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, David J. Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, District Attorney Hovey of San Francisco, Governor Johnson of Minnesota and Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia.

Invitations have also been extended to Rudyard Kipling, the author; John Burns, labor leader and member of Parliament; Horacio Hernandez, the Norwegian author and reformer; Lord Curzon, formerly viceroy-general of India and now chancellor of Oxford University; and Milovanovic, the leader of the Constitutional Democrats in Russia; Jules Siegfried, member of the French Chamber of Deputies; Frederick van Rooden, an eminent literary man of Holland, and Sir Robert Hart, for more than forty years inspector general of customs in China.

Each orator will be left perfectly free to choose any subject of great political or public problem, and he will be given a latitude of expression only possible in America. Diplomats of every nation are already anticipating the utterances which orators from their countries may make on the platform of the Civic Forum.

Rev. Lyman Abbott is chairman of the council of the forum. The vice-presidents include such eminent men as Edward Everett Hale, William H. Taft, William J. Bryan, John Graham Brooks, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, Oscar B. Strauss and Justice David J. Brewer.

La Crosse Police.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 20.—Believing that they have in the tolls here a man who has been working one of the most successful inheritance games ever perpetrated in this part of the country, the police have arrested George L. Marchand, alias George Paradise, alias George Hoffman, and will detain him in the central police station pending an investigation of several cases in this city and Eau Claire where a stranger representing himself to be a French-Canadian has called upon people and impressed them with the belief that they were heirs to Canadian estates.

Marchand called upon County Clerk Rawlinson, administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. P. N. Delore, who died a week ago, representing himself to be a cousin of the Delore family and announcing that the parents of the deceased Mr. Delore had died recently leaving an estate of $50,000 but the estate could not be divided until the Delore heirs had been located. Becoming suspicious on account of some remarks made by the stranger Mr. Rawlinson furnished the police with information which led to Marchand's arrest.

Two north side families were found to have been approached by the stranger with the information that they were heirs to estates in Canada, and four Eau Claire families were victimized out of goodly sums of money in order to defray the expense of tracing up heirs. In each case the stranger had the family history of those he approached, at his command, and announced himself as an administrator of the estates.

BLACKLISTED MEN MUST MEET BARKEEPS

Ordinance Introduced in Beloit Council Compelling Police to Introduce Barkeepers to "Non-participants."

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., Nov. 20.—An ordinance making it the duty of the police department to introduce every blacklisted man to every saloon-keeper and bartender in the city, has been introduced into the common council and is now being considered by the judicial committee to which body it was referred. The "temperance" measure would make all suspected of being minors sign a blank to the contrary before being given liquor. The question arises: are these statutes the result of a recent fiery sermon delivered by Rev. Joseph Carden, Episcopal pastor, charging certain saloonkeepers with failing to comply with promises made their constituents?

RAILROADS MAY RAISE FREIGHT CAR CHARGES

New Rules on Diversion of a Freight Car From Its Home Road Will Be Passed On.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—The operating vice presidents of nearly all the principal railroads of the United States met in conference in this city today to consider a new car hire agreement which will insure the more prompt return of cars to their home roads and thereby reduce the offsetting car charges. Rules imposing a penalty of $5 for the diversion of a freight car from its home road after being received by another line have been drawn up for consideration at the meeting.

The railroads claim that much of the car shortage is due to the fact that they are unable to keep their cars on their own roads. Twenty-two roads have agreed to abide by any rules made by the conference for a period of six months, and it is hoped to bring all the members of the American Railway Association into the agreement.

And The Dead Senator.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—The greater portion of the morning session of the trial of Mrs. Bradley was consumed in reading the letters written by Senator Brown to Mrs. Bradley, and the missives from the defendant to Brown. When the recess came the witness had just reached the point where the tragedy occurred.

The two young sons of Mrs. Bradley will probably figure extensively in the Washington murder trial now in progress. The younger son, on the left is Lawrence Brown Bradley, youngsters arrived in Washington this week accompanied by their grandmother. They are permitted to sit with their mother during the trial. The younger youth earned about $50

THE TWO CHILDREN OF MRS. BRADLEY

The one on the right is Arthur Brown Bradley. Mrs. Bradley shot their father, the

as a newsboy last summer and sent it to his mother to aid her cause. The trial of Anna M. Bradley, charged with the murder of former Senator Brown, is replete with sensation to the point of nausea. Although the life of Mrs. Bradley shows many discreditable acts, with a certain sympathy is felt for a woman who has been subjected to the intrigues of such a man as Senator Brown was. The prosecution in the criminal court before George Wendell Stafford will attempt to show that Mrs. Bradley shot from motives of malice and revenge because she had come into possession of knowledge of his impending marriage to Mrs. Adams, mother of Miss Adams. Mrs. Bradley's defense will be insanity and the "high law," which is summed up by Mrs. Bradley's own statement, "I did what any other woman would have done under like circumstances."

The prosecution will put Mrs. Adams on the stand and the defense will call Senator Sutherland of Utah and his clerk, George Hanson, and have brought five other witnesses from Salt Lake City.

MOONLIGHT CLUB
HELD A MEETING

GEORGE SUTHERLAND AND SEN.
ATOR WHITEHEAD SPOKE AT AFFON.

WAS FULL OF INTEREST

Banking Situation Explained by the Two Janesville Speakers—Many
From City in Attendance.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Afton, Nov. 20.—Last evening witnessed one of the most successful meetings of the Moonlight Club ever held. Fully a hundred members, from the four towns of Rock, Turtle, La Prairie and Beloit sat down to a sumptuous supper at Brinkman's hall. Among the guests of the evening were from the two speakers, George Sutherland and Senator J. M. Whitehead, from Janesville were Judge Charles E. Hild, Jesse Carle, County Clerk Lee, C. H. Wierick, James Scott and Dr. Nazum.

The Moonlight Club, composed of residents of the four towns of Beloit, Turtle, La Prairie and Rock, and they hold monthly meetings, alternating between Shopley and Afton. This was the first supper for the present season, the next one to be held December 17 at Shopley. The subject now being dealt upon the banking situation, Senator Whitehead talking on "Our Banking System," and George Sutherland on "Financial Plunage."

Humphrey Leader.
Owing to the illness in the family of J. T. Atkinson of Shopley, who was to have been leader, J. H. Humphrey, a former resident of Afton now living in Janesville, was the leader. He made an excellent presiding officer and prefaced the address of the evening by a neat introduction of each speaker that was most timely and fitting.

Whitehead's Talk.
Senator Whitehead impressed his listeners with the fact that during the existing "panic" the banks have all closed together, showing the stability of the national banking system of the country. That when New York banks were affected Chicago was also reached and then others in direct line. His talk was along the lines of the stability of the banks and assured his hearers of a safe outcome of the present trouble.

Mr. Sutherland.
George Sutherland talked on "Financial Plunage," taking his term, "financial plunage" from Thomas W. Lawson's recent articles. He explained personal experience in New York on a recent visit and took up in detail the work of the great New York clearing house which is really the backbone of the banking system of the east as the one in Chicago is of the west. Both speakers were asked many questions as to details of the banking system which they explained full to the satisfaction of all.

"PAINTING THE TOWN"

COAT OF MANY COLORS

Charles Yale's Musical Spectacle
Pleased a Fair-Sized Audience at the Myers Theatre.
A supply of scenery and costumes large enough to stage half a dozen ordinary shows, was revealed in the presentation of "Painting the Town" at the Myers theatre last evening. It proved to be a conglomeration of light opera, musical comedy, tableaux, slapstick Irish farce, vaudeville, and minstrelsy and seemed to meet with high favor with the farsighted audience. The "Land of Nod" interlude with the Garden of Eden, the Land of Snow, the Falls of Niagara, and the Gardens of the King were real scenic triumphs and made King was the dancing and entertaining "epitome" of these localities. Leonard and Haliday, as the two Herberian funsmiths, met with many strange adventures in out-of-the-way places after their departure from the beaten path of domestic rectitude and felicity.

When Gladys Vanderbilt becomes Countess Emily Szechenyi she will acquire not only a noble Hungarian title but also a titled sister-in-law whose beauty is the talk of Europe.

The government is awakening to the need of protecting the common carriers of the great lakes outside the harbors and has established a new department known as the lake survey. To keep the intricate mesh of the vessel tracks of the lakes clear is part of the task of the lake survey. The lakes should be viewed as the right-of-way of transportation system in which $25,000,000 are invested in carriers and great sums in terminal facilities.

The way a shoal was discovered in the early days was by wrecking a vessel on it. This was very effective, but there are many shoals in the lakes that have cost upwards of $50,000 in their discovery by this method and some lives have been added to the cost.

The method now most constantly resorted to is to send a diver to a shallow in a boat with a quarter of a mile long suspended horizontally at a depth of 20 feet below the water's surface and towed over successive shoals of lake area by a launch or steamer. It is a complete catch-all, and detects a shoal reaching from a wreck or infirmity in the old method of sounding showed up a shoal of large extent.

The survey steamer General Williams is constantly relocating wrecks which have been under the surface of the waters for years unnumbered.

Platform is not only bad on the walk but as the drivers are in the habit of going behind the crossing gates when let down and getting into their places by crossing the platform they are liable to be caught on the tracks some time and a possible accident may result in a lawsuit against the company. It is in the interests of the company and regarding litigation that the timbers are being laid.

SUNDAY GOLFERS
GRILLED TO TURN

BY THE MINISTERS AT OPENING
MEETING OF SOCIAL UNION CLUB

WILSON LANE AS DEFENDER

Of the Noble Sabbath Game Played
Lone Hand But Got in Hot Shot—
C. J. Hammonson to Lead Next Time.

Sunday golfers were placed upon the spit and tanned a rich and golden brown by Rev. J. H. Tippitt in his sermon on the topic "Why Do Not Men Go To Church?" before the Social Union Club at the opening session of the season last evening. The amusement of the devotees of the game, present, was only exceeded by their chagrin and consternation. Until a thoughtless champion in the person of Wilson Lane arose to defend the game. With indignation address he first invited the men of the cloth to join the club and learn the lure of the fair green and the "tee" beautiful, before presuming to criticize. This was regarded by the clergy as only harmless buzzing, but they were fully aroused when the speaker wound up his peroration with the following stinger: "The ministers preach too long and the laymen generally know as much about the subject they are discussing as they do." Even if this were true, according to Rev. Tippitt, the minister has the last thought on a subject and is entitled to a hearing. Moreover, he maintained, the man who goes to church gets what he goes there for.

Rev. W. P. Christy who was to speak on the subject: "Does the Church Care For Children?" was absent and A. E. Matheson spoke in his stead. Rev. R. C. Donelson delivered a very thoughtful address in answer to the question: "Will the Institutional Church Solve Our Problems?" and Mr. Reynolds, presiding elder of the Methodist church, took Rev. J. W. Laughlin's place and delivered a very good impromptu response to the topic: "Is the Church Indifferent to Wage Earners?" Rev. R. M. Vaughn, in discussing the findings of the Ladies Home Journal, woman, Miss Laura Smith, who made a first visit to 150 churches in New York and other large cities and was ignored by the congregations of a large majority, said that the mission of the church was not necessarily of a social nature, though efforts along this line were generally recognized as having their value and bearing on its work.

Sup. H. C. Doel was leader of the meeting and Mr. Moore, a traveling man, Sumner Cobb, Dr. Leavitt, Mr. P. Richardson, and H. S. Godfrey, and others took part in a spirited impromptu discussion.

There was a good attendance and a very good supper was served by the ladies. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 7. The topic will be "Amusements" and E. J. Hammonson has been chosen as the leader.

At 19 years of age he had already graduated from the Columbia College of Law. He next went abroad and studied international law. He is worth many millions, inherited from his ancestors who are closely connected with the Astors. He is smart as a whip and at 22 years of age he stepped New York state for ex-President Cleveland. He is very popular with democrats of all classes in New York state and is a possible presidential candidate.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of dyspepsia, heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—indigestion.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success first to Dr. Shoop and his associates. With such original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For a long time, Dr. Shoop's discovery, his breath and follow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Bilets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Former Alderman Steengrim Trulson and wife, who reside at 151 Washington street, have returned from Stoughton where their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated by dinner at the home of their son, Dr. L. M. Trulson. Their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hulda Trulson of Stanton, Iowa, widow of their son Theodore who succumbed to diphtheria a few years ago, accompanied them on the trip. The infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Trulson was christened and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falk made the celebration of three-fold significance by announcing that the date was also their 25th wedding anniversary.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her
Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff. Her hair becomes matted by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newell's Herpetide. Herpetide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpetide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpetide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Small Mexican Church.

At Ponon, Mexico, a suburb of Mexico City, may be seen what is perhaps the smallest church in the world. It nestles under the shadow of a small volcano. The church is about ten feet high and 12 feet wide. Whenever a couple is married at the little altar of the church there is lively room for the groom and bride to turn around at the same time.

Had His Fears

One day while riding on one of the suburban cars, two boys of about ten years of age were overheard discussing what they were going to do when they became men. One of them was not decided, but the other one remarked emphatically: "I always did want to be a boat builder, but I will bet a nickel that I will end up in the military yet."—Chicago Tribune.

Watch Jewels Not Costly.

A jeweler, no matter how dishonest, would not steal the jewels in a watch, for they are valueless; they cost only ten cents apiece. In antique watches the jewels were often costly. In modern watches they are never worth more than $15 a gross.

CULTIVATE CONFIDENCE

Henry Clows, the New York banker and financier, sums up the situation in New York and offers some good advice along the lines of confidence, which if generally heeded would result in speedily restoring normal conditions.

Since his letter was written the President has come to the rescue and his reassuring words, as well as his prompt action, has done much to restore confidence. The President speaks with authority and when he assures the people that their money is safe in the hands of the country, it means something, Mr. Clows says.

"Confidence is reviving gradually. Disquiet is less acute than at the time of the runs on financial institutions, although the shock then administered is traveling across the continent and stirring the forces of readjustment in general business with unexpected severity. Our chief trouble has been the demoralized condition of credit."

"The local banks are handling the crisis with admirable skill and spirit, but are still crippled by the universal loss of confidence; and because of a temporary breakdown in the credit system are unable to do their full share of the country's business. It is estimated that fully 95 per cent of the transactions in this country are settled by check or the transfer and balancing of credits; yet in many instances the banks are now obliged to refuse credit on checks for deposit, the result being a much heavier demand than usual for currency in the making of payments."

"Added to this exceptional demand is the tendency to hoard cash, not only by individuals, but by some of the interior banks. Nothing could be more harmful at such a time than hoarding. This tendency, it is true, has been somewhat counteracted by the premium of 2 to 4 per cent on currency, but the injury is serious nevertheless. The hoarder should be regarded as an enemy of society and shamed out of his folly."

"There are numberless institutions all over the country where the depositor's money is perfectly safe, while in stockpiles and other hiding places it is very unsafe. Many of our state banks have enviable records for safety and soundness. Our national banks are eminently safe; so, too, are our savings banks and conservatively managed trust companies."

"People must cease their silly and injurious hoarding, and if disposed to invest at this time should deposit their funds in banking institutions of well-established reputation, managed by men of high character and ability and free from all undesirable connections. There are plenty of such institutions, not a few of which are profitable largely by the shifting of deposits from weak to strong concerns, but they are not among the class that seek public notoriety."

BLUE BLOOD BOSTON

A young man from Boston, recently graduated from Dartmouth college, applied for a consular position and was rejected because the quota of Massachusetts was full. These positions are apportioned, even to each state, and the particular place desired by the Boston boy was secured by a westerner.

The disappointed candidate files his grievance in the Boston Herald, and says among other things, "It seems absurd to place certain western states—not to mention any names—intentionally on a par with the New England states, especially Massachusetts, and I could not help but express my sentiments against such injustice."

Wouldn't that "stop a clock" or at least retard its progress. The young man has evidently never been very far from home, and it is safe to assume that he never encountered a western football team.

If he will stroll out beyond Boston Commons, and investigate conditions in the rural districts, he will discover that the country is inhabited by foreigners who are endeavoring to obtain an existence on worn-out soil, despoiled years ago by boys who possessed intelligence and ambition enough to "go west and grow up with the country."

The young man doubtless has a pedigree, as this is the one essential requirement for life "at the hub." He should cherish it as a priceless inheritance and loyally stay by the state that appreciates his presence and overlooks weaknesses because of a birthmark.

In the meantime the wild and woolly west will manage to worry along without him. If he will take a day off and peruse a little current history, he may dawn upon him that when the people of the new state of Oklahoma get through shouting, they will be prepared to furnish young men enough to equip the entire consular service, and have material enough left to fill all vacancies that may occur in a generation.

Boston is a good bean town, but the west raises the beans and the New England boys, for the west is flooded with this class of boys, and the most of them are so busy that the pedigree has been lost in the shuffle.

WORKING TOGETHER

"For the first time in many months," says the Wall Street Journal, "the administration and the leading financial interests of the country are working together, or at least along parallel lines, for the restoration of business confidence."

"That there are still sharp and perhaps irreconcilable differences between them as to the many issues entering into the question of the control of interstate commerce goes without saying, but whereas for a long time they have been facing each other in angry contention, now they have apparently turned about, and stand together, shoulder to shoulder, to face a vast problem and a more fearful peril than any involved in the corporation question—the problem and the danger of panic."

"The great mistake of the administration at Washington is that for a year and a half it has failed to appreciate the intensely delicate conditions of international finance. It has shared in the fallacy of the west, that the country has become so rich that it was independent of Wall Street, that prices there might melt away in the furnace of stock exchange liquidation without the rest of the country being affected in the least, and that there might be a rich man's panic without a poor man losing a job."

"With the zeal of a Savonarola, President Roosevelt, his whole heart intent upon an era of fairer markets, lost sight of the fact that there are times and conditions when agitation, even for high moral ideals, is dangerous because such agitation tends to unsettle that confidence which is essential for the maintenance of prosperity."

"McKinley's aim was for wider markets. Roosevelt's aim has been for fairer markets. The problem of today is not wider markets or fairer markets, but whether there shall be any markets at all."

"For a year there has been a progressive panic in this country. For this the only share of responsibility that rests with the administration is that it failed to appreciate this fact of progressive panic and continued to agitate for moral and economic reforms when all of its energies should have been directed to the constructive work of strengthening business confidence."

"This, however, is no time for criticism, much less for recrimination. The situation has been thus outlined simply for the purpose of bringing into strong contrast the most important development of the day, namely, that the administration is at last awakening to the financial conditions, and has entered with all its resources upon the supreme task of restoring confidence and prosperity. It deserves the heartiest commendation and support."

This editorial is so absolutely fair that it is well worth reading and considering. The currency stringency is but the culmination of months of weakened confidence which developed so gradually that its presence was not detected until the collapse came.

The conservative element of the nation was in the minority, and radicalism was rampant and in full control. Agitation and recrimination was the order of the day and the only passport to legislative halls was the magic word reform.

Corporate wealth and captains of industry became a by-word, and all the time confidence was being destroyed. The lid is off at last and everybody is startled, but no evil is effectively remedied until the cause is discovered and removed.

The signs of the times are hopeful, and out of the present embarrassment will come a better understanding and a sound basis for continued prosperity. There will be less agitation and more sober thinking, less criticism and more commendation, until in time the people will work together for the common good.

Mrs. Bradley has heard her whole life to the Washington jury and told of the details of her illicit love with a former United States Senator. It is a revolting story to be rehearsed in a court, but apparently a chapter in life that exists even though not known in many communities.

to look into the merits of the street-rollers carefully before buying any. It is an important matter. The country may also buy a roller or two for its rural roads and it will only be a short time before the country roads are better than the city roads.

Indiana's Governor has shaken out the prize-fighting evil with a vigorous shake. Chicago is also bereft of this species of questionable sport and the smaller towns are fast becoming a mecca for the gentry who live by the "punch."

Janesville factories are running as usual. In a few cases a few men in certain departments were laid off for the time being because work was slack but as a general thing business is good.

PRESS COMMENT.

In Hero's Lifetime, at Least—Life: The public plays no return dates in hero worship.

Not Without Silver Lining—New York Commercial: It may be worth all it cost—the financial stringency has closed a big graphophone factory.

Was Bred in Pio Region—Chicago Tribune: Why shouldn't the duchess of Marlborough eat peas? Wasn't she raised in the pio belt?

That for You, Howard!—Green Day Gazette: If Howard could ever hold any claim to being a man he has forfeited it by his action in the divorce case against his wife.

Mush—Gush—Itasca Journal: The country is informed the Duchess of Marlborough ate a piece of pie from out of a lunch box in Ellis Island. This touches the popular heart.

Well Prepared for the Shock—Exchange: Mr. Bryan has broken it gently but he would not have surprised anybody if he had landed his announcement in a cannon and shot it at the country.

Galvanized Antiques—New York Commercial: They have been having exhibitions of galvanized antiques in Kansas City and westward. John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain in boxing boots.

Rubbing It Into Beloit—Rockford Register-Gazette: Beloit college's president wants to abolish football. Hope he defeat the Rockford high school gave his team hasn't made the world look as bad as that to him!

Ugly Sort of a Pleasantry—Milwaukee Journal: If the members of the senate know that La Follette is hunting deer, they might all hasten to take out licenses. Then the legislature might spend another session filling a vacancy.

Not Quite—Yet—Chicago Tribune: In his inaugural address Gov. Haskell, the new executive of the new state of Oklahoma, took a rap at President Roosevelt. This, however, does not necessarily put him in the presidential possibility class.

With Always That Exception—Exchange: Every true sportsman, notwithstanding, will endorse Mr. Cleveland's position on the question of "feeding hoggers." Yet some latitude might be allowed in the case of anglers whose sole ambition is to catch the biggest string of German carp.

Babcock is Right in Line—Oshkosh Northwestern: Former Congressman Babcock of this state is quoted as saying he would like to whoop whiskey from the face of the earth. From this one is led to believe that the former congressman has been reading the signs of the times and has gone into training for future political preferment.

Anti-Stuffed Bird Crusade Again—El Paso Herald: A woman who wears on her hat a bird wondrously killed for the purpose of personal adornment is lacking to a degree in one of the finest traits of humanity. The idea of murdering a thing of life and beauty and usefulness in the glad world, and wearing the corpse around as a decoration, approaches the line of savagery.

Scarcer but Less in Used—Evening Wisconsin: The prediction of the elder of the forestry service that there will be a lumber famine in twenty-five years, is an old story. The lumber is undoubtedly getting scarcer every year; but builders are economizing and turning to the use of other materials, and calculations as to duration of the lumber supply must take those facts under consideration.

Excuse Little Better Than None—Milwaukee Sentinel: Says the Boston Globe: "It looks as if President Roosevelt might have to address a special message to the women's clubs in Milwaukee in view of the statistics gathered showing that just fourteen children have been born to the 1,020 women's club members in that city during the last year, including Judge Coolidge's twins." O, well, those 1,020 members are not all married; and how about the Boston record, anyway?

BELLBOY AT BELOIT ARRESTED AS THIEF

Herald Clark Arrested by Police for Stealing Articles from Hotel Guests.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., Nov. 20.—Herald Clark, a bellboy at the Hotel Hilton, was arrested this morning on the charge of petty larceny. Clark, who is 19 years of age, has taken many articles of value from guests of the hotel. When taken into custody at first this morning he denied that he had stolen anything from a hotel guest, but when taken to the city lock-up he admitted to have stolen and confessed to many of the acts of larceny.

The practice which he has been carrying on for some time past was revealed by an effort on the part of the chief of police to locate a sapphire stilette stolen from E. R. Morrison, superintendent of the Racine & Southwestern division of the St. Paul road, who was a guest at the hotel about a week ago. Mr. Morrison's agent to Rockford before he moved his place. He then wrote to the local police about the theft. Clark was suspected of taking the pin when the hotel manager was apprised of the loss, for several articles had been missing from different guests. The manager had Clark watched for a week and this morning he was placed under arrest when he made his confession. Some of the articles found in his possession were a $12 revolver, two pairs of gloves, and a razor. Clark had asked another bellboy at the same hotel to keep some of his booty and his arrest was effected through this confession.

Wright Hoffman, aged 21 years, died here at 12 o'clock last night after an illness of more than two years. He was taken ill soon after his graduation in the Iowa State Medical college at Des Moines, Ia., but the physicians at the college were unable to diagnose the case. He was moved to Chicago, where Dr. Senn was called to examine him. Later he was taken to Janesville and while there he was under the care of Dr. Palmer for a period of eight months. Last January young Hoffman went to California with the hopes of regaining his health. The doctors there pronounced his disease as muscular tuberculosis. They treated him with electricity, but he was cured. He returned to the hotel and accepted a position with Morse & Fairbanks. He was taken ill again and suffered a 17-weeks' sick spell.

NO TRACES OF BANDIT COULD BE FOUND HERE

Officers Searched the Railroad Yards Monday Night for the "Barnyard Kid" Who Shot Operator at Lilly Lake.

Monday night a report reached local police headquarters that the criminal known as the "Barnyard Kid," who shot Fred Argenbright, telegraph operator for the Great Western road at Lilly Lake, had traveled to Madison from Rockford, proceeding thence to Jefferson, and was headed this way. The police searched the local yards but found no individual answering the description. Argenbright was alone in the station when the young bandit entered and commanded him to hold up his hands. The operator did not comply and in the struggle which ensued was shot in two places. He is in a serious condition at a Chicago hospital.

LOANS LIKELY TO BE OVERSUBSCRIBED

CABINET IS GRATIFIED BY THE SUCCESS OF THE MEASURES.

TREASURY IS CAUTIOUS

Question of Using Certificates as Bank Reserves Raised—They May Be Criticized in Congress.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The communications which came to the treasury department Tuesday, approving the financial policy adopted by the president and Secretary Cortelyou, and the subscriptions which were received for the Panama bonds and one-year certificates were the subject of discussion at the meeting of the cabinet and afforded general gratification.

While details regarding subscriptions are not yet being made public, it seems to be the feeling at the treasury that both loans will be oversubscribed, as was the case with the popular loan of $100,000,000 issued by the Cleveland administration in 1896. The decline in the stock market Tuesday is regarded as only a symptom of hesitation until the effect of the measure is proved by the opening of the bids.

Officials Moving Carefully. Several important questions are being raised in communications addressed to the treasury, but the treasury officials are exercising an unusual amount of care in defining their position. One of these questions, upon which no official information has yet been given, is whether the new one-year certificates will be available for bank reserves. The law on the subject seems to be sufficiently clear, that they are not available for this purpose, but it is possible that the presence of a few of them in reserves under present critical conditions would be winked at, just as in the case of clearing house certificates.

A policy of reserve is being pursued by Comptroller Bigley, apparently for the purpose of avoiding any unfavorable impressions among the bankers or misunderstanding by the public pending the opening of bids for the new securities. If the certificates are redeemed at the end of one year, according to their terms, it is believed at the treasury that there will be no difficulty in withdrawing money from the banks for the purpose at that time, because money usually accumulates rapidly in the banks after the first flurry of a crisis has been passed and as general business and speculation become curtailed.

May Be Criticized in Congress. The possibility is attracting some attention that the issue of the one-year certificates will be criticized in congress in much the same manner as was the sale of bonds to the Morgan syndicate to protect the gold reserve in 1895. The fact that a Republican member of the house committee on banking, Mr. Prince of Illinois, was quoted Tuesday as declaring the issue "not justifiable under existing conditions" is considered a symptom of the attitude which may be taken by a few members of congress.

Demand for Currency Reform. Cincinnati, Nov. 20.—At a meeting of the members of the chamber of commerce of this city Tuesday a resolution was adopted asking congress to provide a currency which will prove elastic enough to prevent future recurrence of the present financial stringency. The resolution will be sent to every commercial body in the United States and they will be asked to co-operate in the movement for a better currency system.

INDICTED FOR BRIBERY.

Former Senator McCone of Ohio Accused in Oil Case.

Findlay, O., Nov. 20.—The grand jury Tuesday returned an indictment against ex-Senator Thomas McCone for alleged bribery in connection with the Standard Oil trial of last June.

Byron Williamson was indicted several months ago for a like offense. It is alleged that an attempt was made to bribe McCone to vote for the Standard Oil bill. McCone was at the back of it. Thompson was to get $500 if he voted for acquittal. It is alleged. McCone pleaded not guilty and was released on bond.

King's Daughters Select Bucyrus. Kingsburg, Miss., Nov. 20.—With addresses by Miss Sophie Wright of New Orleans, Miss Libby of New York, and Mrs. E. Trask Hill of Boston, the ninth annual conference of the International Order of King's Daughters adjourned Tuesday night. Bucyrus, O., was selected as the next meeting place and the following officers were chosen: Mrs. Robert J. Reed, Wheeling, W. Va., chairman; Miss Jennie Greenwood, St. Louis, secretary.

Free Drinks and Lemons Upheld. Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 20.—The Missouri supreme court Tuesday decided that it was not a violation of the law for a person to give a friend a drink of whisky in local option counties. Judge Fox filed an opinion in the supreme court holding that the selling of lemons on Sunday is not a violation of the Sunday closing law.

KAISER'S STRENUOUS REST

WILLIAM KEEPS VERY BUSY AT HIGHCLIFFE CASTLE.

Attends to State Affairs and Has Long Motor Drives—His Health Improves.

London, Nov. 20.—Emperor William, concerning whose health there has been circulated various rumors of late, is pursuing a rather strenuous "rest cure" at Highcliffe castle, on the Isle of Wight.

For example, Monday he was at his desk at seven o'clock in the morning and was engaged for two hours with state affairs before breakfast. Then both in the morning and the afternoon he took long drives in a powerful motor car through the surrounding country in company with members of his suite. The machine ran mostly at a pace not exceeding 40 miles an hour, but in some places where there was no danger the speed reached 60 miles an hour. Beyond these drives, his majesty takes little exercise in the open air. If the business of state is not pressing, he rests in the castle for a short time in the afternoon.

The emperor's sleeping well in the place selected country and his catarrh is steadily improving. He appears to be enjoying himself thoroughly. He spends his evenings after dinner playing cards. With the exception of his own physician, Dr. Illberg, no doctors are in attendance upon him. He is always accompanied on his drives by Count Wolff-Metternich, the German ambassador to Great Britain, and Count August zu Eulenberg, grand marshal of the royal court.

Special telegraph and telephone instruments and a special mail service have been established for Highcliffe castle, in order to enable his majesty to deal with his heavy state correspondence.

LEWIS SCORES PROSECUTOR.

Bitterly Resents Allusion to Transfer of Home to Wife.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—During the trial Tuesday of Edward G. Lewis, charged with having used the mails to defraud in the organization of the Peoples United States bank, Lewis was merely cross-examined by former Judge Chester P. Krum, leading counsel for the government.

When Attorney Krum asked the witness why he had transferred his house and lot in University Heights to his wife for a consideration of one dollar, when several thousands of dollars' worth of University Realty and Development company bonds were secured by the property, Lewis sprang from the witness chair and, with clenched fists in the intensity of his anger, exclaimed:

"That is a deliberate lie of you and the rest of your bunch. The mortgage and bonds were paid up before the transfer was made, and I have been fighting for two years to nail that lie before a jury of my countrymen. This is the first time that you have dared to come into the open with it, and it will be the last time. I did transfer my home to my wife, but not until I had paid the so-called $50,000 loan with interest."

Attorney Krum remained silent until Lewis had finished his vehement declarations and then, turning to Federal Judge Carlisle, he said: "I suppose this kind of procedure is satisfactory to your honor?"

"You are conducting the examination," quietly replied the court, "and you told the witness a little while ago to go ahead and talk."

Ute Indians Go to Work.

Washington, Nov. 20.—Telegrams from Special Agent Downs of the Ute Indians and Supervisor of Indian Employment Baggett, received at the Indian office here, state that 57 able-bodied Indians with their families, consisting of a total of about 150, have left the Ute camp for Rapid City, S. D., to go to work. The total number of Indians at the camp is about 370.

Mauretania Runs Into a Gale. On Board the Steamship Mauretania, Tuesday A. M., Nov. 19, by Wireless Telegraph via Crookhaven, Nov. 20.—The Mauretania ran into a south-west gale Monday morning, which increased in the afternoon until at three o'clock she had to reduce her speed for one hour and 40 minutes. The reduced speed resulted in a loss of 17 miles.

"CONSOLIDATED ZINC" ONLY ONE DAY MORE

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS CLOSE TOMORROW, THURSDAY, NOV. 21, AT 4 P. M.

12% YEARLY DIVIDENDS ASSURED

THE time is growing short. You must make your reservations of "CONSOLIDATED ZINC" stock before 4 o'clock Thursday, Nov. 21, if you want to get in on the first allotment of shares at par. Books will be closed promptly at the hour named, but for the benefit of those living at a distance subscriptions or reservations mailed not later than 4 p. m. Thursday will be filled in order of receipt.

"CONSOLIDATED ZINC" is a CERTAINTY. It is a dividend earning and a dividend paying stock. Twelve per cent yearly is assured from the start. On the stock you acquire now a dividend check for one per cent will be mailed to you Jan. 1, 1908, and one per cent, or more, on the first of each month thereafter.

This is an extraordinary opportunity for conservative investors who regard both safety of their principal and large earning power. "CONSOLIDATED ZINC" is not in any sense a "prospect," but a closely knit industrial consolidation of bona fide properties, possessing an enormous aggregate producing power.

The Consolidated Zinc Co. is assured of 75 properties, with mills or equipment, etc., actually producing lead and zinc ores and is now earning a profit of $1,750,000 yearly. These properties, when fully opened up and developed, will give it an additional profit of about $1,250,000, making a total of $3,000,000, figured on the present market price of lead and zinc.

Against the above earning rate of $1,750,000 no more than $50,000 of stock can be issued for properties. Calculate the earnings for yourself.

A STRONG and active market for this stock is assured from the start. The shares now offered at par, $1.00, will sell at a substantial premium from the closing of the subscription books.

Only a very limited allotment of the 20,000,000 shares of capital stock will be sold at this time. Three per cent, or 600,000 shares only, can now be bought by the public. Applications filled strictly in order of receipt, and we reserve the right to return the money on all oversubscriptions.

This stock offers the best opportunity for both large and small investors that has been submitted to the public in many years. We therefore urge that intending subscribers act promptly and make their reservations of stock either in person, by mail, or wire, if necessary, without delay.

As a convenience to those who have any trouble in securing actual cash, we will accept cashiers' checks, personal checks, drafts, or savings bank books in payment for stock subscriptions.

ILLINOIS TAX RATE FIXED.

Levy Commission Makes No Change from That of 1906.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 20.—The state tax levy commission, consisting of Gov. Deneen, State Treasurer Smollett and Auditor McCullough, met Tuesday and fixed the tax rate on the assessment of 1907. It calls for a state tax of 50 cents on each $1,000. The total equalized assessment will thus amount to $1,261,971,211.

The sum of $75,118,462 is allowed for collection, the rate being six per cent. This will leave the net amount realized from the assessment $1,176,852,750. The 42 per cent. rate for the revenue fund will produce $494,731, the eight per cent. rate for the school fund will produce $94,148.4. The 50 cent rate remaining will mean a sum of $5,842,738. The rate of assessment for 1907 is the same as the rate of 1906.

GOOD BLOOD

NATURE'S PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE

The preservation of health and prevention against disease is almost entirely dependent upon pure, healthy blood; every organ, tissue, nerve and sinew of the body draws on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength. Poisons, humors and germs from various sources often get into the blood, and then this great life-stream becomes a source of infection and disease. Instead of a nourishing, health-sustaining fluid, it is likewise an important factor, regulating the quality of the blood. Some persons are born with tainted blood from diseased ancestry, and Scrofula in one of its numerous forms is sure to crop out some time in life. Not only poisons in the blood are responsible for disease, but when the circulation is run down and becomes poor and weak in quality, then we see the effect in a general bad condition of health, such as weakness, sallow complexions, boils, and various skin eruptions. All blood troubles require a tonic and blood purifier, and none other equals S. S. S. It goes down to the very foundation of the trouble, and removes every particle of the poison or impurity from the blood. And not only does S. S. S. antidote the poisons, humors and germs, but it possesses health-giving, tonic properties, which build up and strengthen weak, impoverished blood, and fortifies the system against disease. S. S. S. permanently cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Itzema, Tetter, and all other skin diseases and disorders. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

CHAPTER XVII.

KINROSS rose so late next morning that the early 11 o'clock dinner of the household served for his breakfast.

Miss Lilly and Miss Parks when they took their places were eager to hear of his adventures of the night before.

"Was there anything doing in the haunted room last night?" Daisy eagerly inquired. "And were you, Pete, or did you cut and run?"

"Oh," exclaimed Mrs. Morningstar, "how you didn't sleep over there, after all, did you? I didn't hear you make any, and you was in your room till (when) we got up ready this morning."

"Yes," answered Pete, surreptitiously watching Kinross's face opposite him as he spoke. He observed that Abe, at her side, was nearly dislocating his eyeballs trying to look at her without betraying himself by turning his head. Her habitual manner of utter withdrawal from her surroundings was unchanged today, though he fancied he detected a quivering of her lashes as he spoke.

"You really did have the fine courage to sleep in that room?" George asked, leaning toward him across the table, with her smile and tone of inviolable confidence.

"I didn't do so very much at sleep," he answered.

"Did the spirits keep you awake?" she asked indignantly.

Mrs. Morningstar had dropped her knife on her plate and was staring at him apprehensively, while Mr. Morningstar suspended his onslaught upon his food as he awaited his story. Abe and Ollie also fixed their eyes upon him wondering. Kinross was the only one who did not look at him.

"Did you see it, Doc?" Mrs. Morningstar asked breathlessly, evidently forgetting in her anxious interest her objections to Kinross's hearing anything of the story of the room.

"I seen it, yes, ma'am," Peter answered.

"Oh, tell us about it!" cried Daisy. "What did it do? And what did you do?"

"I sat it was it the spook, and it ayed it was. Then I sat it would it set, and it set. Then I sat would it set, and it set, and it ayed it didn't drink. 'A cigarette?' I sat. Didn't smoke, it ayed. Ain't up to date, I told it. Ladies where thinks anything of themselves these days smoke cigarettes, I say."

"Oh, a lady, was it?" exclaimed Daisy. "Did you have a sympathetic time with her? Go on; tell us."

"What more more?" he inquired anxiously. "Well, then, I sat her would she play solitaire with me. Didn't gamble, neither, she says."

"Oh, look here, Peter—skiddoo!" cried Daisy. "Now, stop jollying us and tell us what you did really see—please," she begged. "Were you up against anything? You're so foxy I never know when you are jollying us."

he rose instinctively to stand while she passed from the room. But the net was so entirely out of character that neither of the young ladies recognized it for what it was, though Georgeanna's glance did for an instant rest upon him uncertainly with a vague surprise which quickly brought him to himself and to his chair.

A little while later as he lingered in the kitchen after dinner to get a word alone with Mrs. Morningstar and (as Providence favored him by keeping old Morningstar indoors) with Mr. Morningstar as well he saw Kinross and Abe start out together for the fields. While Mrs. Morningstar and Ollie cleared off the table he seated himself by the kitchen window and watched the youth and the maiden as long as they were in sight. The incongruity of a Wilecott working in the fields like a peasant and along with a fellow like Abe Morningstar struck him afresh.

"Now, you see"—Mrs. Morningstar turned to him as her husband stretched himself out on the settee and Ollie departed with a pile of dishes to the outer kitchen—"how crazy that there girl is after our Abe—her not havin' a word to say agin' workin' in the fields out such a hot afternoon."

"But she never does say a word against anything she's asked to do, does she?" questioned Kinross, averse to this interpretation of Kinross's silence and reticence.

"Well, I'd like to see her once! What right would she have, I'd like to know? Pop he won't even leave Ollie and Abe speak back. What fur would he leave her?"

"Well, I guess anyhow!" hoarsely echoed Morningstar from the settee.

Kinross saw that his opportunity had come.

"But it's different with Kinross," he began. "She's not your own child and does not owe you a daughter's respect and obedience."

Mrs. Morningstar set down the plate she was scrubbing and stared at him, and Mr. Morningstar sat upright on the settee and fixed him aggressively with his little sharp eyes.

"She owes us more'n what our own children owe us," the latter affirmed, "as rakin' her like our own and her not bein' ours."

"But you have not raised her as your own. She was taken out of school at a younger age than Ollie was, and she has never been clothed as your daughter has been. For years she has been doing the work of two women and has got nothing for it but her board."

"Who's been tellin' you, them things?" Mr. Morningstar asked, with repressed venom. "And what's it your business, anyhow?"

"Kinross has the right to work for our keepin' her when she was a child yet," Mrs. Morningstar repeated her oft-repeated argument.

"This brought Kinross to the point which he had been driving.

SLIPSHOD CANAL METHODS.

Inquiry Shows Rights Worth Millions Went for $2,200.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Alleged slipshod methods of the Illinois and Michigan canal commissioners in transferring state property to private interests were brought out in the testimony taken by the legislative investigating committee at the Great Northern hotel. Under a fire of questions from attorneys for the committee and the state, President C. E. Sively of the commission admitted that water-power interests had appeared before the board for months seeking authority to develop water power projects on state lands.

It was shown that the commissioners leased for $2,200 water-power rights from which it is alleged power running into millions of dollars may be developed, without making for any expert opinions on the advisability of such action on the part of the state.

If it overtakes him, well and good, and to make the chase a comparatively easy one, the distinguished Nebraska will doubtless walk very slow until it is ended.

J. J. HILL TALKS ON NEEDS OF RAILWAYS

ADDRESSES THE COMMERCIAL CLUB IN KANSAS CITY.

MOST VITAL OF ISSUES

He Sees Terms the Problem of Largely Increasing the Country's Transportation Facilities.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 20.—James J. Hill, of St. Paul, Minn., executive head of the Great Northern railway, was the principal speaker at the thirtieth annual banquet of the Commercial club in this city Tuesday night. Mr. Hill discussed the "commercial development of the Mississippi valley" and gave a comprehensive history and review of industrial conditions as they exist today.

Mr. Hill's Address.

He said in part:

"The transportation facilities of the whole country are and have been unequal to its present needs. They must be made equal to the burdens they bear or the country cannot prosper. How far railroad construction has been unable to keep pace with the domestic commerce the country even now does not realize.

"Railroad managements have met the situation by every effort to increase equipment and increase efficiency in operation. In both directions what they have accomplished is little short of wonderful.

"Everything that available capital, ingenuity, cheap service, high priced labor and skillful management can accomplish has been done. The problem that remains is both physical and financial: To bring construction up to the needs of our immense domestic commerce, and to raise the necessary money to do this.

Most Vital of Issues.

"The whole situation declares that we must have more new lines, more double track, more and greatly enlarged terminal facilities. How are these to be had, and what inducement can we offer to the capital which must be willing to invest before anybody can build them? There is no subject, no right to be asserted or wrong to be rectified, real or alleged, that can take precedence of an issue so vital; one so nearly concerning the income, the equipment, the comfort, happiness and prosperity of every one of our 86,000,000 people.

"A year ago I said that it would require $5,500,000,000 or $1,100,000,000 a year for five years, to make our railroad facilities equal to the demands upon them. Although substantially the amount of money suggested by me as indispensable has been collected and spent, the railroads have barely held their own and the future remains to be provided for. Not less, but, in the opinion of competent judges, more, perhaps 50 per cent more, must be spent annually for the five years to come.

"There are but two reasons, actual scarcity of money and reluctance to invest, which overshadow the outlook. Providing enterprises can no longer be financed on any basis consistent with present rates and conditions."

RUM ROUTED IN ALABAMA

REMARKABLE SCENES WHEN SENATE PASSES THE BILL.

Compromise Gives Liquor Sellers One Year More—Mobile Threatens to Secede from State.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 20.—Unprecedented scenes were enacted in the senate chamber of the historical capitol of Alabama Tuesday when the statutory prohibition bill was passed. Women and children thronged the corridor and gallery and even usurped the sanctity of the floor itself, pushing the senators from their seats and giving vent to their enthusiasm by shouts and cheers that echoed and resounded through the building.

Senators who opposed the bill were hushed down when they arose to speak against the measure, and Lieut. Gov. Gray, the presiding officer of the senate, was forced to reprove the spectators.

The statutory prohibition bill which was passed was in the nature of a compromise between the anti and prohibitionists. The anti, seeing the handwriting on the wall, agreed to give up the fight provided the time was extended to January 1, 1910, when the sale of whisky will be forbidden in the state of Alabama. This amendment will be sent to the house and will be concurred in without a fight.

Gov. Comer will approve the bill and it is understood that a movement has already been started by the state W. C. T. U. to make the signing of the bill a very formal occasion.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 20.—An indication of the wrath of the "home rulers" over the prohibition policy of the Democratic party in the state is shown by the following telegram that was sent to State Senator Hamburg by M. J. McDermott, president of the Bank of Mobile:

"Unless anti-prohibitionists win today, please give notice that Mobile is prepared to secede from the state of Alabama and organize home government and cease to be dominated by our country cousins whose efforts to paralyze Mobile will not be tolerated."

Council of Six Nations.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 20.—A council of the Indians of the Six Nations began at the council house at the Onondaga reservation today, to decide whether an attorney shall be engaged to sue the United States government for interest on the $2,000,000 Kansas award.

The Kansas award of $2,000,000 was made when the treaty of Buffalo Creek was signed, Jan. 15, 1858, giving the Indians that sum for lands in Kansas. Now the Indians believe they are entitled to interest at the rate of 5 or 6 per cent from the time the award was made twenty years ago. The interest would amount to more than $7,000,000 and would mean $300 for each male member of the Six Nations. The Indians interested include the Mohawks, Cayugas, Oneidas, Onondagas, Tuscaroras and Senecas.

Slandering the Illustrious Dead. Marquette Eagle-Star: Just what object the author of the scandalous story circulated in the Sunday newspapers, that letters are in the possession of the Louisiana Historical society showing that Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. H. Thomas and Admiral Farragut wrote to Jefferson Davis applying for commissions in the confederate service in 1861 could have been, is not clear. Isn't it about time to call a halt in the disgraceful business of slandering the illustrious dead?

Most Lasting Monument.

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if we work on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble to dust. But if we work on men's minds, if we impress on them high principles, noble aims and love for their fellow-men, we engrave on those tablets something no time can ever efface.—Chesterfield.

Axminster Carpet Used 150 Years.

A fine old Axminster carpet is at present in the carpet factory at Wilton, England, where it is being repaired after having been in use for fully 150 years. It was purchased by the present owner's great-grandfather. Carpets had been made at Wilton for 250 years, but the trade languished and finally stopped. No wonder, when a carpet lasted 150 years.
